General conditions

Although all different combinations are possible and will be quoted at your request, the basic program consists of a minimum of seven to eight days Shikar; two or three traveling and five hunting days for every single major trophy.

Hunting programs are designed to deliver an excellent chance of success for specific species. Each hunt itinerary is constructed to include 5 hunting day, the maximum time allowed in any nature reserve by the Iranian Department of Environment. Itineraries can be constructed to hunt multiple species by linking several hunts in series. Lodging will be provided in the reserve’s guest house or in the best local Hotel or private guest house.

We are not recommending less than 5 hunting days per species because we probably could face bad weather or wind, fog, rain or even snow. In case the hunter would like to come for less than 5 days per species then it will be his risk. In such circumstances and on request and to save the time, we would be able to use overlapping system of hunting days when the hunt going to be organized for more than one species.
